II. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (~~limited power~~). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State of nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, not defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)
